MONGOLIA: Mongolia is a sovereign, landlocked state located in East Asia. It borders Russia to the north and China to the south. Its capital is Ulaanbaatar, where half of the total population resides. This nation traces its roots to the ancient Mongol Empire of Genghis Khan, which dominated much of Asia and even Europe during the 13th and 14th centuries. The Mongol Empire was the largest empire on Earth.

Capital: Ulaanbaatar

Official Language: Mongolian

Currency: Tugrik (MNT)

Continent: Asia

TRIP DESCRIPTION IN MONGOLIA: We will begin our journey at the new Genghis Khan airport in Ulaanbaatar (opened July 3, 2021, located 52 km/32.3 miles away, plus a 2-3 hours drive depending on traffic), the capital of Mongolia, where you will be met by the Samar Magic Tours team. This grand route, traveling on the famous Trans-Mongolian Railway, is a unique way to experience Mongolia and China. This is the most interesting and famous train route in the world, traveling on the Trans-Mongolian Railway and crossing two vast countries: Mongolia and China. We will traverse the Gobi Desert in Mongolia and the Great Wall of China in China.

In Mongolia, we will depart northeast to visit the Great Equestrian Statue of Genghis Khan. At the base of the statue, visitors can see a replica of the Great Khan's legendary golden whip. Tourists can take an elevator inside the statue. The exit is at the level of Genghis Khan's crotch, from where you can walk to the horse's head for a great panorama of the steppe. We will visit a small Bronze Age museum located in the basement of the Great Equestrian Statue of Genghis Khan. We then depart northeast for Gorkhi-Terelj National Park, situated at an altitude of 1,600 meters above sea level. The park features towering Mesozoic granite boulders, mountains, steppes, alpine forests, and striking Mesozoic rock formations such as Turtle Rock. It lies at the foot of the Khentii Mountains, the region where Genghis Khan was born. Declared a National Park in 1993, it covers an area of 300,000 hectares.

Following this, we depart west to attend an authentic Mongolian nomadic performance, showcasing the traditional way of life of Mongolian nomads, including the raising and use of five types of livestock as they move from place to place using oxcarts, yaks, camels, and horses. Much of the Mongolian population remains nomadic, moving from place to place on horseback, camel, or yak, with their gers

CHINA: The most populous nation in East Asia and the world, its vast landscapes encompass grasslands, deserts, mountains, lakes, rivers, and over 14,000 km of coastline. The capital, Beijing, blends modern architecture with historical sites such as the Forbidden City palace complex and Tiananmen Square. Shanghai is a global financial center adorned with skyscrapers. The iconic Great Wall of China runs east to west across the north of the country. China has the second-highest number of UNESCO World Heritage Sites in the world, with fifty-two. Among the country's top tourist destinations are the Great Wall of China, the Forbidden City, the Mausoleum of Qin Shi Huang, the Guilin Mountains, the Yangtze River, the Potala Palace, and Adventure & Cultural & Expeditions, since 1997!

TRANSPORTATION: Samar Magic Tours reserves the right to change the vehicle depending on the number of participants. Under no circumstances will we accept claims for these reasons, and no refund will be issued.

PLEASE NOTE: The destination of MONGOLIA is not recommended for people with respiratory problems, heart problems, wheelchair users, disabled individuals, or children under 3 years of age.

CLEARANCE CHANGES: These are not included in our services. These are external conditions. In these cases, we will do everything within our power to find the best available solution. Under no circumstances will we accept claims for the consequences of temperature changes, and no refund will be issued.

TRAVEL CONDITIONS: Mongolia is a country where tourist infrastructure is almost nonexistent and is currently being developed. The areas are vast, requiring many hours of travel and significant fuel costs. The journey is mostly on dirt and sand tracks. Depending on their condition, you may spend several hours on the road. A large part of the Mongolian population remains nomadic, moving from place to place on horseback, camel, or yak, with their gers and herds. An occasional encounter with one of these families and their way of life is an unforgettable experience. We emphasize that to truly enjoy this trip, you must accept the aforementioned conditions beforehand, relinquish some preconceived notions about how things should be according to your own mindset, and be open to what this country has to offer.

FORCE MAJEURE CONDITIONS: While it is our absolute desire to carry out the trip as detailed in the program, occasionally force majeure conditions may arise that necessitate modifications. Samar Magic Tours is not legally responsible for force majeure conditions beyond the control of the trip organizers that may require changes to the travel program. These force majeure reasons and circumstances include potential situations of insecurity for the traveler, political instability or violence, rebellions or risk of rebellion, strikes, riots and violent actions, decisions by governments or local authorities, technical or maintenance problems related to transportation, changes in air or road schedules or routes, natural disasters, epidemics, adverse weather conditions, as well as any other circumstances beyond the control of Samar Magic Tours. If, due to exceptional circumstances of force majeure, it becomes necessary to cancel the trip, there is no obligation to provide compensation. I have read and understand the Obligations and Responsibilities section detailed above in the form, as well as the General Information and Special Booking Conditions as set out in the tour information materials, and I accept them on my own behalf and on behalf of my group. I declare that I am not traveling against any medical advice.

MONGOLIA FACT SHEET

Currency: The official currency in Mongolia is the Tugrik (T), which is issued in denominations of 10, 20, 50, 100, 500, 1,000, 5,000, 10,000, and 20,000 Tugrik. It is advisable to bring Eur or USD and exchange them gradually. Currency exchange can be done at banks and hotels in Ulaanbaatar.

Approximate temperatures in Mongolia

Spring:	May	[14° day, 6° nights, sometimes rains, cold]
Summer:	June-August	[28-30° day, 18° nights, dry, sometimes rains]
Autumn:	Sept.	[21-16° day, 0° night, dry, cold]

Luggage: The lighter the luggage, the better. A frameless backpack, rucksack, or duffel bag is advisable, along with a small daypack to carry essentials (camera, sunscreen, binoculars, water bottle, and flashlight). A raincoat or poncho and a good anorak are also recommended, as well as warm clothing for higher altitudes, lightweight cotton clothing, sunglasses and a visor for the hottest hours of midday, and comfortable shoes. Clients are advised to bring binoculars.

Small first-aid kit: mosquito repellent, saline solution, gauze, aspirin, and paracetamol.

Electricity: 220V, 50Hz. European round plug.

Clothing: There are no dress requirements, but please be respectful of local customs.

Photography: The country is one of the most photogenic in the world with its landscapes, wildlife, culture, and people. Entrance fees to museums, national parks, and monasteries are included in the tour program, but photography is not. Many monasteries and temples do not allow photos unless the established fee is paid. It is essential to check before taking a picture, as these notices are in Cyrillic or Mongolian, which are unintelligible to us, and once the camera has been taken, payment is required immediately.

Food: Meat is the staple of Mongolian cuisine. Lamb and flour form the basis of their meals. The Mongolian diet also includes horse meat. Milk and yogurt have a delicious, though somewhat strong, flavor. Cow's milk and goat's milk cheese are common. Milk may not be pasteurized, and therefore some dairy products can be unsafe. It should be boiled, and food should preferably be cooked. This is the standard hygiene practice, but in reality, once you stop at a ger (yurt), every traveler is invited inside and offered aromatic "airag" (fermented mare's milk) and cheeses made from goat, yak, and sheep milk—all of which are acidic and dry. Refusal would be considered improper.

Shopping: Keep in mind that haggling is practically unheard of in Mongolia. Even with bargaining, you won't get paid less than 70% of the asking price. Some shops sell handicrafts, postcards, and clothing. You'll also find carpets, leather goods, and products made from cashmere and camel hair. Wooden toys, puzzles, and games are also available, as well as oil paintings and watercolors. In the capital, shops carry expensive European products, especially in the State Department Store and other newer shopping centers that offer virtually everything you could want, both Mongolian and international.

Precautions: Mongolia is a safe place for tourists because there are no drugs, robberies, or weapons. However, as anywhere in the world, it's essential to be aware of pickpockets.

Upon arrival at the hotel, it is recommended that you immediately deposit your passport, visas, money, documents, valuables, etc., in the hotel safe (either in your room or at reception) before going out to explore Ulaanbaatar. Be cautious in restaurants, pizzerias, cafes, markets, the central post office, and monasteries, as pickpockets are common.
